cate blanchett

With the premiere of Elizabeth on FilmFour, Cate reflects on a right royal performance and the distractions of being Hollywood's hottest property

18 months ago Joe was knocked down

by a car. 34 people picked him up.

2 of them were nurses. There was the A & E nurse who took the call from the ambulance and decided which tests Joe needed there and then, so the trauma team would have their information without delay.

The theatre nurse who held Joe's hand as he was rushed in unconscious. The paediatric nurse who reassured his parents by explaining the operation. Joe's favourite nurse, the one he gave a big hug to when he left hospital. And the children's community nurse who popped in to change his dressing once he was home.

The nursing team is the living heart of the NHS. It's responsible for putting thousands of Joes back on their feet every day. As a nurse you're a talker, a listener, a manager, a comedian, a diplomat, a skilled professional and a warm human being. (Did you think it was pointless to hold an unconscious child's hand? You're not a nurse).

Every second is important. Every day is different. Every effort is vital. Sound like hard work? It is challenging. However you'll find the NHS is improving, investing in more staff, modern equipment and new hospitals.

And the pay is getting better. In fact, from April a newly qualified full-time nurse will earn at least £14,890 p.a.

If you think you could be a nurse, or if you're interested in returning to nursing, please call us now.

angela's flashes

Feisty, schoolgirl Angela Anaconda (below centre) has one mission in life – to outdo her nemesis, perfect pupil Nanette Manoir. Unable to beat her in real life she uses her overactive imagination, and that's where the fun really begins.

Angela Anaconda gets its first showing on Cartoon Network on Monday 17 April at 4.30pm flights of fantasy

Waitress Virginia and her dad Tony (right) live in modern-day New York, The 10th Kingdom, which just happens to be a magic mirror away from the Nine Magic Kingdoms set up by Snow White, Cinderella and Little Red Riding Hood 200 years ago. When dark forces cause the fantasy kingdoms to cross into the real world, Virginia and Tony must fight for life as they know it.

'When you re-read fairy tales as an adult they don't seem to scare you like they did when you were a child, but I wanted to find a way of taking adults into that world,' says Simon Moore, writer of Sky One's landmark fantasy drama.

No expense was spared to bring this fantastical family adventure series to life, with state-of-the-art special effects and guest appearances from Ann-Margret as Cinderella and Rutger Hauer as the Huntsman.

The 10th Kingdom begins on Sky One on Sunday 16 April at 7pm

bard times

Comedy troupe The Reduced Shakespeare Company (left) has been taking a sword to the work of the Bard for nearly 20 years. Having already presented his complete works in a total of 97 minutes, they now present a luxuriously lengthy 15-minute version of the star crossed lovers' tale Romeo And Juliet In The Wood exclusively for BBC Knowledge's Shakespeare Night.

Dedicated to the life and times of wordsmith Will, this one-off night also features renowned actors, including Dame Judi Dench, Sir John Gielgud and Kenneth Branagh, discussing the work of Stratford's most famous citizen in a fascinating documentary The Genius Of Shakespeare. The painstaking restoration of the famous theatre is revealed in The Globe while Shakespeare On The Estate gives insight into a local Birmingham theatre company at work. For the real thing don't miss Trevor Nunn's monumental stage production of Macbeth. Shakespeare Night is on BBC Knowledge on Friday 7 April from 7pm

HOW TO USE THE PARENTAL LOCK

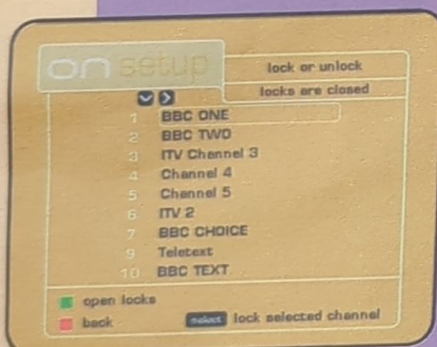

It's good to know that our 'parental lock' facility enables you to limit their access to a particular channel:

- 1 If you do not already have a Parental code press MENU on your remote and choose option 3 for 'parental lock'.
- 2 Select '1', enter a code of your choice and confirm it by pressing the SELECT button on your remote. Take a note of it, then press the RED button.
- 3 Next select '2' to go to the 'choose channels to lock or unlock' option. Enter your code once again and press SELECT.
- 4 You will see a full list of channels. To choose the channel to lock scroll down or key in the channel number on your remote. Once you've highlighted the channel press SELECT and a little padlock symbol appears alongside the channel. Repeat this procedure for all the channels you wish to lock. Finally press the GREEN button on your remote to close the locks.

- 5 The channel you have selected can no longer be viewed without having the code. To unlock a channel while watching select the channel concerned and a green panel will inform you that the channel is locked. It gives you the option to unlock it by simply pressing SELECT and entering your code.
- 6 To unlock a channel permanently, repeat steps 3 and 4. This time, when you SELECT a locked channel and press the GREEN button it will open the padlock.

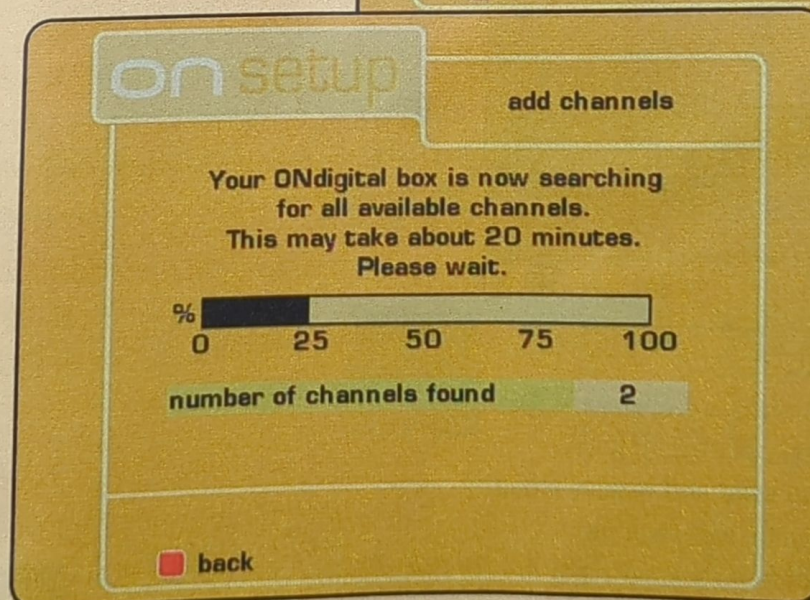

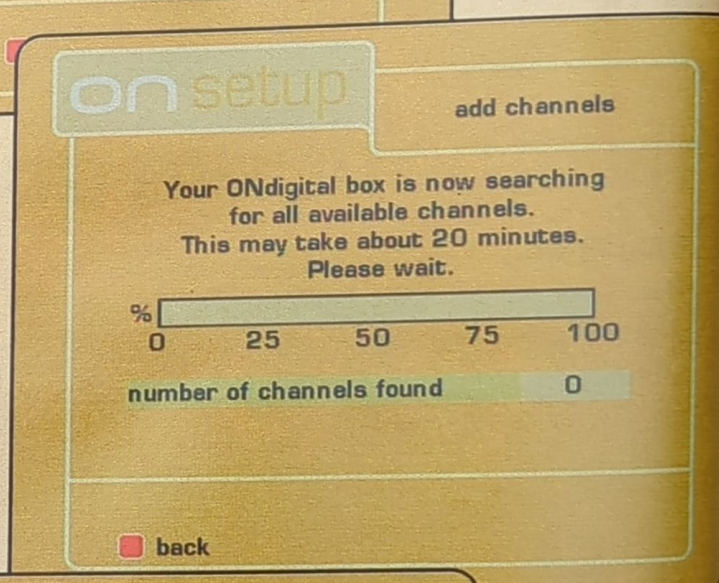

HOW TO add new channels

When new channels come on board you need to perform an 'add channels'. Simply follow our step-by-step guide below:

- 1 Press MENU on your remote and choose option 5 'getting started'.
- 2 Then choose option 3 'add channels'.

- 3 Your ONdigital box will now automatically search for the new channels. This process may take up to 20 minutes.

- 4 A black bar on your television screen will indicate the percentage of the search that has been completed.

- 5 At the end of the search you will see the number of channels that have been found and your new channel list. To view the channel list at any other time, press MENU, then 5 and then the SELECT button on your remote.
- 6 To return to normal viewing simply press the EXIT button.

the changing face of cate

Her ability to tackle the most challenging roles has directors queuing up to work with her. With the premiere of Elizabeth on FilmFour Lucy Ryan stands in line to court the favour of Cate Blanchett

Cate Blanchett is a special kind of star. You won't find her in the gossip columns. You won't find her in fashionable bars and restaurants. You won't even find her promoting her latest role. In fact for one so bright and beautiful you may have trouble finding her at all!

She doesn't dismiss the glitz and glamour of being one of the world's most coveted actresses. It's just the whole fame thing tends to get in the way of the craft she takes very seriously. Despite her Oscar nomination, Best Actress Bafta and Golden Globe for her role in Elizabeth Cate remains focussed on her work: 'All that award stuff was a distraction,' she says. 'A pleasant distraction, but still a distraction.'

The fact that the industry's most respected directors are clamouring to work with 30-year-old Cate is due not only to her talent but the way she has used it. After graduating from drama school in 1992 she rapidly established herself as a stage actress of rare presence and versatility. Then came her movie break as the gutsy nurse in Japanese POW camp drama Paradise Road. However it was her powerful performance in Oscar And Lucinda that brought her to the attention of director Shekhar Kapur who was looking for the actress capable of playing the lead in his latest project, Elizabeth. When he saw Cate at work he knew he'd found his queen. 'I was totally fascinated by her because that's how I saw Elizabeth. Very ethereal but with a certain fire in her eyes.'

And so it was that Australian Cate landed the role of a lifetime playing the English monarch torn between affairs of state and affairs of the heart. To get to grips with her character and the complex political intrigue Cate threw herself into researching her subject. The physical transformation into the imposing Virgin Queen was equally demanding. 'It was like preparing to go into battle,' she says. 'They shaved an inch off my hairline, they bleached this big band of my hair white and the rest was red. I had no eyebrows and they bleached my eyelashes!'

It took months for her hair to recover, but Cate's extraordinary performance as Elizabeth turned her into a household name overnight. Despite a flood of lucrative offers she confirmed her chameleon reputation with such diverse roles as the trashy housewife in air traffic control caper Pushing Tin to a sophisticated socialite in Anthony Minghella's The Talented Mr Ripley. 'They weren't enormous roles,' says Cate, 'but they're the ones that interested me.'

Even more interesting is Cate's future. Look out for her as a Russian cabaret dancer alongside Johnny Depp in The Man Who Cried and as a small-town psychic menaced by Keanu Reeves in The Gift. Add to that her roles in the forthcoming Lord Of The Rings trilogy, Minghella's latest project Cold Mountain and the rumours of her being offered the part of FBI agent Clarice Starling in the long-awaited sequel to The Silence Of The Lambs. With the movie world fawning at her feet it seems that the Australian queen of England has become the rightful heir to the Hollywood throne.

Elizabeth premieres on FilmFour on Saturday 8 April at 10pm

TENNIS FANS ARE IN FOR A TREAT. WITH ONsport 1'S EXCLUSIVE ATP TENNIS MASTERS SERIES COVERAGE ADDED TO OUR LINE-UP WE'RE NOW SERVING UP THE BEST TENNIS ACTION AROUND

Exclusive and new to ONsport 1 the ATP Tennis Masters Series presented by Mercedes-Benz is the highlight of the professional tennis circus outside the big four Grand Slam events – Wimbledon, the US Open, the French Open and the Australian Open. This year the new-look ATP challenge sees the best men's players in the world competing for crucial rankings points as never before.

With the ATP World Masters Series, formerly known as the Mercedes Super Nines, the top players can enter the nine events to secure twice as many vital rankings points. The action began at Indian Wells in March and as Miami draws to a close, the battle for points is already proving fierce.

To add to the excitement there's a new ATP Champions Race which will run for the calendar year. All players start with zero points and at the end of the year the eight players with most points earn the right to play in the World Championship in November.

Will Brits Tim Henman or Greg Rusedski make it through to the final eight? Find out only with ONsport 1.

the man to beat

Andre Agassi: The come-back kid is at his world-beating best. Having slumped to number 141 in 1997 the 30-year-old American favourite is back at the top, having knocked Pete Sampras off his pedestal. He's already one of only five players to have won all four Grand Slam titles and some reckon he can do it again this year, having already stormed into 2000 with a stunning display of athleticism and victory at the Australian Open. Off court, meanwhile, all eyes are on his ongoing love match with ladies tennis legend Steffi Graf.

the best of british

ONsport 1's ATP coverage will pay particular attention to home-grown hopefuls Tim Henman and Greg Rusedski. They've both proved they are capable of greatness... Could this be the year for the big hitting Brits?

Greg Rusedski

Born: 6/9/73, Montreal, Canada

Residence: Chelsea, London

Height: 6ft 3in

Plays: Left handed

Turned pro: 1991

Highest singles ranking:

World number 4

(October 6, 1997)

Marital status:

Married to Lucy Connor

Form: After an enforced lay-off earlier this year on due to a foot operation, Greg is back and firing on all cylinders. Almost. Already armed with the fastest recorded serve in the world (149mph), if he can fine tune his ground-strokes

Greg could be a real contender this year.

Tim Henman

Born: 6/9/74, Oxford, UK

Residence: Barnes, London

Height: 6ft 1in

Plays: Right handed

Turned pro: 1993

Highest singles ranking:

World number 5 (July 26, 1999)

Marital status: Married to Lucy Heald

Form: As his record proves, two-time Wimbledon semi-finalist Tim is hard to beat on fast surfaces when his serve is hot. His stamina and fitness are in no doubt - if his forehand improves, his serve stays steady and his mental resolve holds he could go all the way.

five to watch

Pete Sampras: Pistol Pete is determined to win back his number one spot from Agassi. Only a fool would bet against the best athlete and all-round player in the game's history.

Yevgeny Kafelnikov

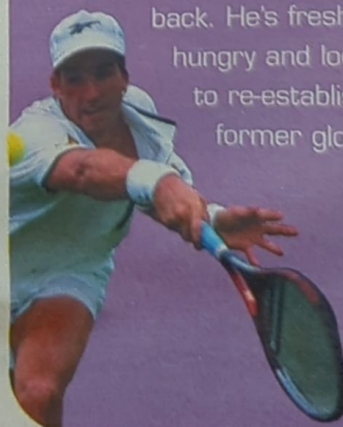

(right): solid, reliable and capable of remorseless power and accuracy, the determined Russian can be a match for anyone. But can he hold under pressure?

Marc Rosset: the wild-eyed, wild-haired Swiss is on a winning streak. Having already bagged titles earlier in the year, he's taking the rankings by storm and at 6ft 7in is a giant slayer in every sense.

Lleyton Hewitt: the teen phenomenon from Down Under has the flair and talent to take him to the top. And with his 'Every time I go out onto the court I feel like I can't lose' attitude he's not short on confidence either.

Pat Rafter (below): after a shoulder injury that ended a run of 26 Grand Slam events, the affable Aussie is back. He's fresh and hungry and looking to re-establish his former glory.

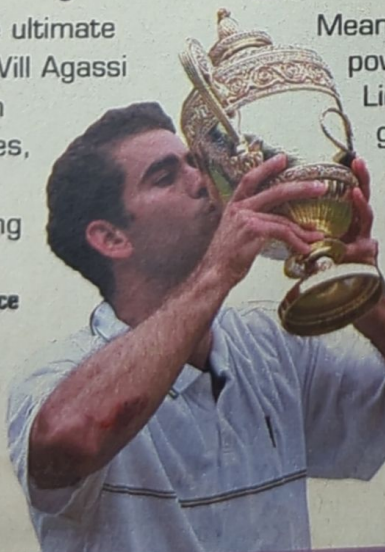

get ready to grand slam

The French Open: the ultimate clay court challenge. Will Agassi win again? And with an open field of fiery ladies, who will step into the shoes of retired reigning champion Steffi Graf?

British Eurosport and BBC Choice from 29 May

Wimbledon: six-time champion Pistol Pete Sampras (right) is going for a record-breaking seventh title.

Meanwhile in the Ladies Singles powerhouse American trooper Lindsey Davenport will be gunning for a second consecutive victory.

BBC Choice, 26 June-9 July

US Open: All-American favourite Agassi defends his cherished crown while the ebullient Serena Williams hopes to power her way to a second title.

Most people carriers can't carry six people and their luggage.

Shock new finding: People carry luggage. So why don't most people carriers? The answer's in the question - they're just people carriers. Mainly because they're based on the rather olde worlde layout of two in the front, three in the back.

So if you want to carry more people - no problem, just remove all the luggage, fit a couple of seats and get them to sit in the boot. Brilliant.

And now for something completely different. The Multipla's three in the front, three in the back layout means you can carry six people and still have room for 430 litres of luggage.

Introducing the first people and luggage carrier. Multipla for short. The range starts at a very affordable £13,381 on the road, with flexible finance available. For more information on Top Gear's Car of the Year and Best Family Car call 0800 71 7000 www.fiat.co.uk

DRIVEN BY PASSION

Batman forever!

Holy Guacamole! Batman is back. Editor Matt Beaven brushes the dust off his Batsuit and prepares for the return of the original caped crusader on Granada Plus

DO YOU HAVE TO fight the urge to answer the phone 'Yes Commissioner?' Do you refer to strangers as 'citizen' and friends as 'old chum'? Have you ever covered your phone with a glass cake cover? If the answer to any of these questions is 'yes' then like me the chances are you grew up a follower of cult sixties show Batman.

Batman, the series, had it all. Cool gadgets, great baddies, crazy plots, over-the-top sets and, in Adam West (Batman) and Dick Grayson (Robin), two actors able to bring the comic book characters to life.

When the show was first broadcast in January 1966 it was a revelation. Colour television was still in its infancy, but Batman's producers resolved to push it to the limits. Weird camera angles were combined with pop art-inspired flashes across the screen – Bam, Kerpow and Biff!

But there were risks. Although Batman had been around as a comic book hero since 1939, Superman outweighed him in the popularity stakes. The show's regular characters were relative unknowns. Schedules were tight and the filming had to be done at a break-neck pace. But William Dozier, one of the TV show's producers, was determined it would be a hit. Already with a number of sixties successes under his belt, including nose-twitching Bewitched, in Batman he saw the potential to pull in an audience of young and old viewers alike.

With some clever marketing and the right chemistry on set he was soon proved right, and it wasn't long before anyone who was anyone was queueing up to appear in the show. In its first season it shot to number five in the American TV ratings. Batmania swept the US and soon the rest of the world.

It ran for three seasons – 120 episodes in all. In the process many of the cast became household names. But with this many shows in just three years, not surprisingly it soon ran out of steam. The last episode was shown in the US on 14 March 1968.

Yet Batmania lives on. In the eighties and nineties Michael Keaton and George Clooney introduced the cloaked superhero to a new generation, but for me they will never replace the kitsch cool of the original. Adam West himself, now 72, doesn't rule out one last go in the Batsuit: 'It would be a challenge and a pleasure to drop back into the Batcave, brush away the cobwebs and dust off the Batmobile...' A whole generation of Batpeople awaits with bated breath. O

NETWORK PREMIERE There's Something About Mary

Starring Cameron Diaz, Matt Dillon and Ben Stiller

The guys who brought you Dumb And Dumber and Kingpin return with another laugh-fest full of juvenile humour and manic, electric energy. Mary (Diaz, right with Ben Stiller) is the beautiful, young thing who instills deep affection in every male she meets, not least Ted Stroehmann (Stiller), who has loved her since high school and who hires a private detective to find her 13 years later. But the private eye (Dillon) is about as trustworthy as a double-crossing rattlesnake, especially after he too falls for Mary's charms. What really makes the thing so hilarious is the jaw-dropping lack of taste. So wind back to your adolescence and enjoy the fun.

NETWORK PREMIERE Elizabeth

Starring Cate Blanchett, Kathy Burke and Joseph Fiennes

Spirited portrayal of the early years of Queen Bess's life, with Cate Blanchett mesmerising in the central role as the young princess initially adrift in the male-dominated world of the Court, with its intrigues, back-stabbing and artful careerists. Supported by a class cast (and the odd appearance from the likes of Eric Cantona) this is Elizabethan England as we hoped it to be: dark, dangerous and thrilling.

NETWORK PREMIERE The Truman Show

Starring Jim Carrey, Ed Harris and Natascha McElhone

From its much-copied movie poster to its simple, ingenious premise, this was the deserved smash hit of 1998, with all-American nice guy Truman Burbank (Carrey) gradually realising that his entire life is a sham – and that he's the star of the world's biggest TV show.

Fiercely original, wonderfully inventive and deeply thought-provoking. Highly recommended.

Sky Premier, Saturday 1 April, 8pm and 11.50pm; Friday 7 April, 10am and 8pm

NETWORK PREMIERE A Perfect Murder

Starring Michael Douglas and Gwyneth Paltrow (both below)

A wealthy trader learns that his wife is having an affair with a painter and cuts a deal with the gold-digging lover to kill her for $500,000. In a brilliant set piece it all goes horribly wrong, opening up the field for a series of blackmails and double-crosses. This is a tight, no-nonsense thriller with a fabulous cast and some genuinely surprising twists.

Just when you thought it was safe to answer the door! Scream queen Jamie Lee Curtis finds herself back in the horror of Halloween: H20

Chloë Sevigny (right) and Kate Beckinsale face up to a changing world and the demise of the glitter ball in The Last Days of Disco

NETWORK PREMIERE The Last Days of Disco

Starring Chloë Sevigny, Kate Beckinsale, Christopher Eigeman and Matthew Keeslar

It's the early eighties and Charlotte and Alice are put-upon office juniors by day and disco divas by night – grooving under the glittery ball as if their lives depended on it, and coming to terms with a changing world, dodgy guys and growing up. Director Whit Stillman is known as a relentlessly 'intelligent' film-maker, but here he has curbed his intellect to produce two hours of pure entertainment, sprinkled with humour, pathos and some wonderful seventies tunes.

Sky Premier, Tuesday 18 April, 10pm; Friday 28 April, 8pm

COMEDY

Peggy Sue Got Married

Starring Kathleen Turner, Nicolas Cage, Catherine Hicks and Barry Miller

A most unusual movie from Francis Ford Coppola, this is the wistful tale of Peggy Sue, a 43-year-old housewife facing divorce but magically allowed to travel back in time to her high school days in an attempt to reinvent her life.

Kathleen Turner is at the peak of her form and manages to pull together an occasionally nonsensical plot with sterling support from a young and appealingly manic Nicolas Cage (Coppola's nephew, fact fans).

This movie features early appearances from Joan Allen, Helen Hunt and Jim Carrey

HORROR

NETWORK PREMIERE Halloween: H20

Starring Jamie Lee Curtis and Adam Arkin

Jamie Lee Curtis reprises her role as Laurie Strode from the original Halloween. Now a struggling, alcoholic single mum she's dogged by dreams and visions of the diabolical Michael Myers (revealed as her brother in the first sequel). Far better than many of the Halloween sequels of the last 20 years, this allows itself the humour that Scream enjoyed so much.

Sky MovieMax, Wednesday 12 April, 10pm; Monday 24 April, 10pm

Did you know?

The H20 in the title refers to the 20 years since the original Halloween, in fact it's the seventh sequel!

The Wicker Man

Starring Christopher Lee, Britt Ekland and Edward Woodward

For many years this was cut because of its realistic, harrowing nature, but here you can see it in all its absorbing glory. Woodward is a policeman sent to a remote Scottish island to investigate the disappearance of a young girl. What he finds is a near-pagan society getting up to all sorts of shenanigans. The movie is so brilliantly put together and chillingly effective at playing with your mind that you can't help thinking it could all be true.

THRILLER

The Juror

Starring Demi Moore and Alec Baldwin

Moore is Annie Laird, a struggling single mum called up for jury service in a Mafia trial, and singled out as the juror most likely to be pummelled into submission by dodgy mob man The Teacher (Baldwin). As Annie fights back to protect her family this superior courtroom thriller becomes the movie equivalent of a page-turner.

Carlton Cinema, Saturday 15 April, 9pm and 3.15am

NETWORK PREMIERE Airspeed

Starring Joe Mantegna, Elisha Cuthbert and Charles Powell

A millionaire arranges for his troublesome daughter to take a trip on his private jet straight through an electrical storm that knocks out the pilot. The daughter is therefore left alone to fly the plane under the instructions of air traffic control. A familiar scenario admittedly, but the weird father-daughter relationship and a decent performance by young Elisha Cuthbert keep you on the edge of your seat.

Sky MovieMax, Sunday 9 April, 8pm

The Devil's Own

Starring Harrison Ford and Brad Pitt

Despite its politically contentious content, this is actually a standard cat-and-mouse thriller. Pitt is a hard-line IRA man, decamped to New York and staying with unsuspecting cop Harrison Ford. When he organises a shipment of weapons to Ireland the truth is revealed and Ford offers to bring the cad in alive.

Carlton Cinema, Saturday 29 April, 9.15pm and 3.15am

CLASSIC

Kramer vs Kramer

Starring Dustin Hoffman, Meryl Streep and Justin Henry

This film still captivates after all these years – two huge stars at the top of their game (Hoffman and Streep), a wonderful performance from an eight-year-old stuck in the middle, and the torture, pain and wrenching guilt of divorce examined with intelligence and sensitivity. The final scenes will have the tears flowing whether you like it or not.

Carlton Cinema, Thursday 20 April, 9pm and 3am

Did you know?

Eight-year-old Justin Henry as the son remains the youngest person ever nominated for an Academy Award

The Ladykillers

Starring Sir Alec Guinness, Katie Johnson, Herbert Lom and Peter Sellers

Now this is how you make a comedy. A gang of fairly hopeless crooks shack up at a little old lady's house near Euston station, persuading her that they're musicians. From the safety of her house they lay their plans to rob a train. But when the old lady stumbles on the truth the gang decide they must get rid of her. Naturally in the sweet old dear they've bitten off more than they can chew... Tightly scripted and wonderfully acted, how can you go wrong with such a cast? Answer: you can't.

THE KNOWLEDGE

Demi Moore

Take a closer look at Bruce Willis's former leading lady

Born: 11 November 1962 in Roswell, New Mexico
Happy childhood? Not exactly. Her father left when she was two months old and her drunken stepfather committed suicide by inhaling carbon monoxide from the exhaust of his car. You'd want to forget a family history like that... Quite. She was born Demetria Guynes; Moore comes from her four-year marriage to rock musician Freddy Moore. Then there was Bruce Willis... Yes, they seemed like the perfect Hollywood couple but after 12 years it all fell apart. They have three daughters – Rumer, Scout and Tallulah

It all began... She got her big break as one of the Brat Pack lookers in St Elmo's Fire, but it wasn't until five years later that she really hit the big time in Ghost. Greatest career challenge? GI Jane – training as a US Navy SEAL, shaving her hair and learning to do one-arm push-ups! Career lowpoint? Has to be Striptease, slated by critics and ignored by the public. Apart from being a mother and superstar? She dabbles as a producer – in fact she was one of the producers of Austin Powers. Other claims to fame? She's famous for the barefoot-and-pregnant cover shoot for Vanity Fair, for hiring cameramen to film the birth of her first child, and also has an entire website devoted to her eyebrows. You can see Demi in The Juror, Carlton Cinema, Saturday 15 April, 9pm and 3.15am

KNOW THE GAME ice hockey

Ice hockey may look like a fight with a game waiting to break out, but it is in fact an exciting, simple game if you know the rules:

- Both teams have six players on the ice with the aim of scoring more goals than the opposition
- To keep a fast pace substitutions are made frequently
- There are three 20-minute sessions of play
- Foul play comes in many forms, the main offences being:

Boarding: body-checking, elbowing or tripping a player into the boards

Roughing: blocking or impeding the progress of an opponent in an overly violent manner

Cross checking: a check (or push) delivered with both hands on the stick and no part of the stick on the ice

Hooking: impeding someone by hooking your stick around them

Spearing: a jabbing motion with two hands on your stick in front of your body, not on the ice

High sticks: lifting your stick above shoulder height

Q&A: Carl Fogarty

With four World Superbike Championship titles under his belt, Carl Fogarty talks about a life in the fast lane

Do you have to be mad to race bikes?

You have to be a bit mad. I'm mad and aggressive on the bike but off it I'm pretty laid back.

Do you ever tire of being the best in the world?

I won the Championship last year and that's all the motivation I need. Winning is what motivates me.

How do you feel about defending your championship titles?

I can't wait to ride down the pit lane with a big black "1" all over my bike.

Money or winning? What's best?

I like money but it's not what makes me race. Coming from around here [the north west], I don't go out and splash the cash. I'm not like that. Maybe I would be a bit more flash if I came from London.

So you don't indulge in luxury holidays?

I've gone around the Caribbean and that but there's only so much lying around in the sun I can take. I just get bored and can't wait to get home.

And the secret of your success?

The will to win and my lifestyle... beer, pies and a healthy social life. You can't live life to the fullest if you don't take a few risks and mine have paid off handsomely.

THE TRUMAN SHOW

Sky Premier 8pm

Truman Burbank (Jim Carrey) appears to lead a perfect life in a tranquil seaside community. However, what he doesn't realise is that since birth he has been the unwitting star of a real-life soap opera and that his entire world is nothing more than an extended movie set. Nominated for three Oscars this intelligent comedy asks the question: even if Truman discovers his life is a fantasy, will he prefer it to the real world?

BEST CHILDREN'S SHOW

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

Discovery Kids 11.30am

This new animated series carries on the work of famous adventurer Robert Ripley who scoured the world in search of the unexplained. The mantle has been picked up by his nephew Michael 'Rip' Ripley, his uncle's former assistant Cyril and fact-seeking Samantha. Their quest today sees them encountering a 400-year-old samurai warrior.

The Truman Show
Sky Premier 8pm

Jim Carrey (right) finally shook off critics' claims that he was nothing more than a comedian with this role as Truman Burbank, the unwitting star of a 24-hour soap opera that records and broadcasts to the world every moment of his life.

The Caine Mutiny
Carlton Cinema 4.45pm

Humphrey Bogart (right) stars as the captain of a mine sweeper in this tense WWII drama. His behaviour becomes more erratic as he grows more paranoid about the loyalty of his officers who eventually relieve him of command. But it is only at the subsequent court martial that the real drama unfolds...

Mermaids

Myths of half-woman, half-fish creatures date to pre-Roman times and there are examples of 'merfolk' in almost every mythology. In their different manifestations they can either do good or cause pain and suffering. The British mermaid legend includes the idea that seals were not animals but beautiful faeries.

ATP TENNIS
MASTERS SERIES:
MIAMI FINAL LIVE
ONsport 1 6pm

The men's ATP Tour has been revamped for the new century. The ten top events outside the Grand Slams are now called the ATP Tennis Masters Series. The Miami Ericsson Open is the new name for what used to be the Lipton Championships. Still held in Key Biscayne, this tournament was won last year by Richard Krajicek. Australian Open finalist Yevgeny Kafelnikov (below) should be a strong contender this year.

Yevgeny's a hard man to beat

STAR TREK: DEEP
SPACE NINE

Sky One from 1pm

After seven glorious years Captain Benjamin Sisko (Avery Brooks) and the crew of the Deep Space Nine Space Station are finally hanging up their space boots. Sky One is dedicating a whole afternoon to the popular sci-fi series which brought viewers not only hi-tech action and special effects but also drama and romance. The last ever episode will be screened tomorrow at 8pm.

on this day
IN 1982...

Argentinian troops invaded the Falkland Islands. A small company of marines on the island was forced to surrender, but Britain soon retaliated.

BEST SPORT

Tottenham Hotspur v Middlesbrough

CHANNEL: SKY SPORTS 1 DATE: MONDAY 3 APRIL TIME: 7PM

There's little love lost between the sides in this north-south battle and Spurs are sure to be fired up by their Scots manager. While Fergie's Reds will be out for three points to sustain their title challenge, George Graham's Spurs need a win to salvage some pride from a disappointing season. Gary Pallister (right) will have to work hard to curtail the mercurial talents of Spurs's David Ginola.

BEST FILM

There's Something About Mary

CHANNEL: SKY PREMIER DATE: SATURDAY 8 APRIL TIME: 8PM

Knockabout comedy. Ted (Ben Stiller) has been besotted with Mary (Cameron Diaz, left) since schooldays and but for a bizarre accident on Prom night they might have been an item. Years later he resolves to track her down and hires private eye Pat (Matt Dillon). Trouble brews when Pat falls for Mary too.

BEST DOCUMENTARY

TV From Hell

CHANNEL: ITV2 DATE: SATURDAY 8 APRIL TIME: 8PM

A diabolical four-hour concoction of ...From Hell programmes includes neighbours at war (left), a showdown between residents and prostitutes in Bristol and the tale of a couple whose honeymoon in the Dominican Republic was wiped out by Hurricane Georges.

Shakespeare Night

CHANNEL: BBC KNOWLEDGE DATE: FRIDAY 7 APRIL TIME: 7PM

For lovers of the Bard there is a whole evening of special programming. In Shakespeare On The Estate a theatre director spends three weeks on a Birmingham housing estate persuading locals to develop their thespian talents, while in The Genius Of Shakespeare former National Theatre director Sir Richard Eyre talks exclusively about the Bard's greatness. Ending the evening is Trevor Nunn's acclaimed adaptation of Macbeth starring Sir Ian McKellen and Dame Judi Dench (left).

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR V MIDDLESBROUGH: LIVE

Sky Sports 1 7pm

Spurs will be hoping to get revenge for the 2-1 defeat they suffered at the Riverside in December when they were undone by the dazzling skills of Juninho and Zieger. Juninho may well work his magic again, but Spurs should enjoy taunting an often shaky Middlesbrough defence. This promises to be a highly entertaining encounter with a return to White Hart Lane for Paul Gascoigne looking on the cards.

Star Trek: Deep Space Nine

After seven years and 176 episodes, Star Trek: Deep Space Nine is coming to an end. Series producers Paramount wanted it to end on a high and the conclusion is dramatic as the war against the Dominion comes to a final confrontation. A new Star Trek series is rumoured to be in production. You can see the last episode of Star Trek: Deep Space Nine on Sky One at 8pm

TRUE LIVES

Alexander The Great

The ancient empire builder was born in 356 BC and died in 323 BC of malaria. At 20 he became King of Macedonia and went on to defeat the Greeks and the Persians. He then invaded Egypt where he founded Alexandria. When he died his empire stretched as far as Afghanistan. Follow In The Footsteps Of Alexander The Great on BBC Knowledge at 9.30pm

STYLE CHALLENGE
UK Style 8pm

Former Blue Peter presenter John Leslie and Shauna Lowry are back with a new series of the popular make-over challenge in which rival teams of expert stylists transform the images of members of the public. This month's volunteer victims include astrologers, pregnant mothers, cab drivers and some eligible bachelors. The show is packed with style ideas, professional tips and short cuts to looking good. At the post-make-over stage the reactions of the re-styled are also something to behold.

FLIGHTLINE

Discovery Wings 8.45pm

To some people they may have a death wish, to others they are the ultimate adrenaline junkies and there's certainly no denying that test pilots stare death in the face every time they strap themselves into the cockpit. Featuring thrilling footage including the X-15 and the SR-71 Blackbird, this show explores what drives these people to push the limits of flight to such extremes.

CHANGING ROOMS
DOWN UNDER
UK Style 9.30pm

The popular home renovation series moves from suburban Britain to Australia and New Zealand in two programmes new to UK Style. Suzie Wilks takes over the Carol Smillie role in Australia, helping neighbours inflict their taste on each other's domiciles in the heat of the Aussie sun. Later, the scene shifts to New Zealand as Kerry Smith takes up the challenge of transforming a room on a budget.

THE CITY OF LOST CHILDREN

BBC Knowledge 11pm

Superbly original comic fantasy from acclaimed French directors Jeunet and Caro (Delicatessen). Unable to dream, evil scientist Krank sets about kidnapping children so he can steal theirs. With the help of cloned henchmen he abducts little Denree, only to find the boy's older brother pursuing him through a bizarre seaside town populated by murderous Siamese twins, trained poisonous fleas and a gang of pre-teen burglars.

BANGED UP

UK Horizons from 9.35pm

UK Horizons goes behind bars for a season about crime and life on the inside. Jailbirds (9.35pm) reveals the claustrophobic intensity behind the walls of Yorkshire's New Hall prison for women. Later in Court TV (10.35pm) the spotlight focusses on the trial of US mass-murderer John Wayne Gacy Jr who was convicted of murdering 33 people.

on this day IN 1874...

Erich Weiss was born, later finding worldwide fame in the guise of escapologist Harry Houdini. He shares his birthday with Poet Laureate Sir John Betjeman who was born today in 1906.

FOCUS ON...

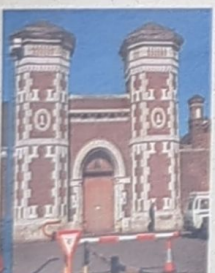

Gretna Green

The village is located in Dumfries and Galloway is just over the border from England. When runaway marriages were banned in England in 1754, Gretna became a popular venue for unions on the run. A couple had only to make a declaration in front of witnesses.

You can find out more about Gretna Green in Love Town on UK Horizons at 9pm

FOCUS ON...

British Prisons

- There are 135 prisons in England and Wales; 118 for men, 13 for women and four mixed
 - At last count HM prisons had 64,894 inmates
 - It costs on average £22,649 to keep an inmate for a year. Of that only £1.40 a day is spent on food
 - In 1998-1999 28 inmates escaped
- Find out more in the Banged Up season on UK Horizons at 9.35pm

BEST DRAMA

COLD FEET
ITV2 9pm

A combination of an all-star cast, including Helen Baxendale, and a sharply observed script made this one of the finest dramas of recent times. A tale of the shifting relationships between three young couples in Manchester, it successfully combines humour and pathos and has gained awards and critical plaudits in equal measure. Starting tonight is a chance to see both series in their entirety for the next two weeks. In tonight's episode a shared secret sparks off misunderstandings about a sexual problem with very funny results.

RUGBY LEAGUE: LEEDS
V ST HELENS - LIVE
Sky Sports 1 7pm

There are fewer more eagerly awaited Rugby League games than the tussles between Leeds and St Helens. This year's clashes should be even spicier than usual, as Leeds have a score to settle. Last year they finished above St Helens in the table, but had to sit back and watch as their great rivals triumphed in the Super League's knock-out stage. With early season Super League supremacy at stake expect a very tight game.

Introducing a masterful tribute to the German Shepherd...

Brooks & Bentley proudly present A Friend for Life, a spectacular tribute to one of Britain's most popular breeds of dog, the German Shepherd.

With some of the most endearing qualities of all domestic dogs, they display an amazing sense of loyalty and devotion to their owners.

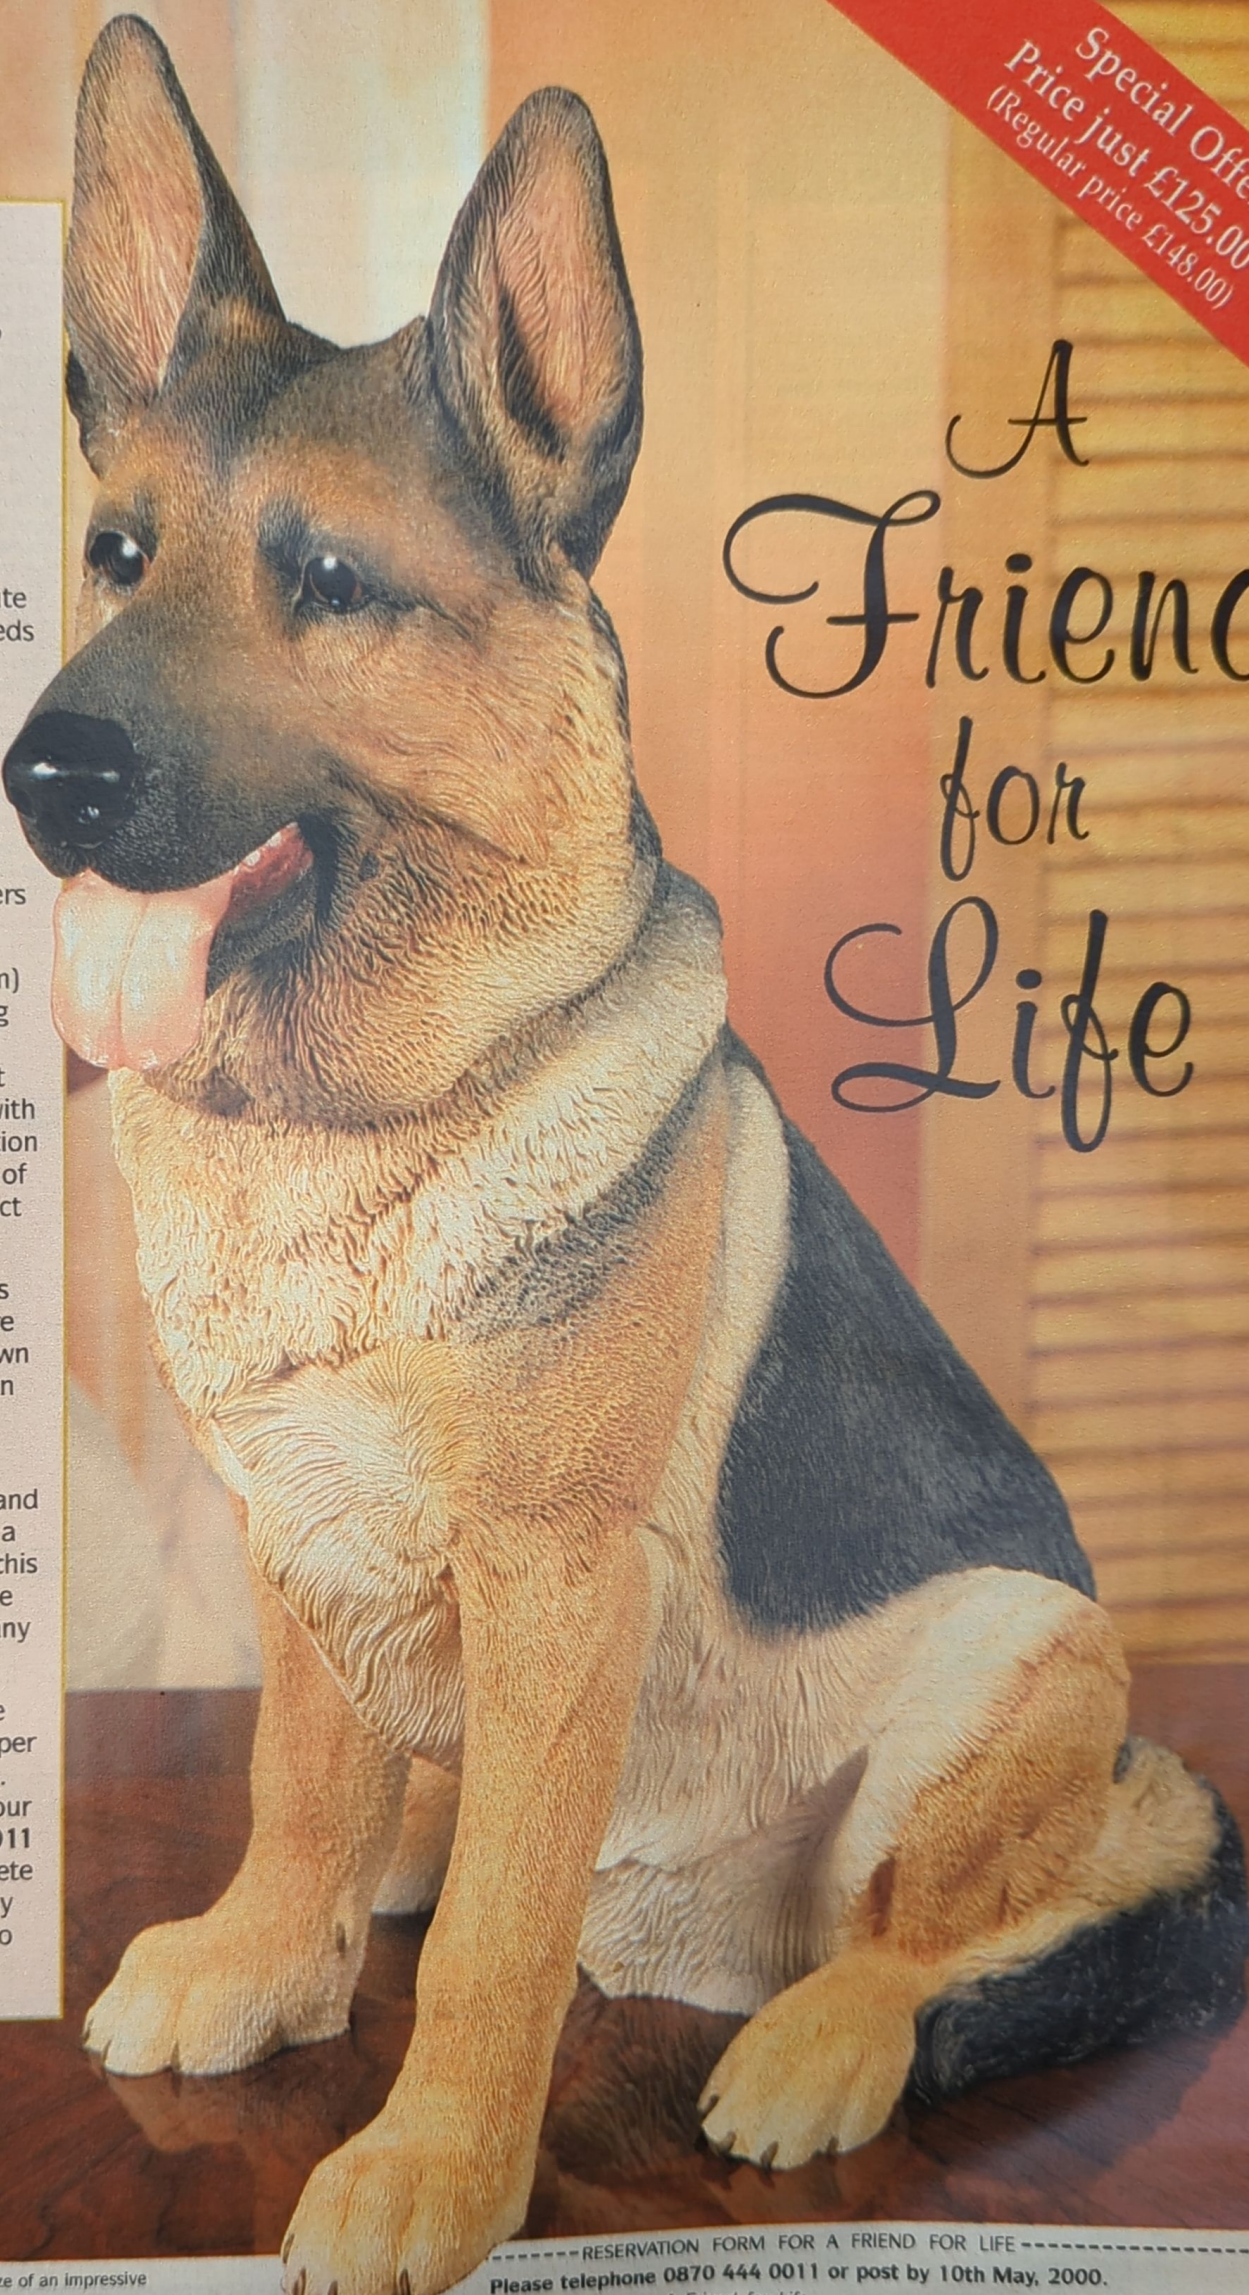

And as a wonderful furry friend, the German Shepherd has become a firm family favourite with dog lovers all over the world.

Standing an impressive 16½" (41cm) high, A Friend for Life is a stunning masterpiece, crafted and painted entirely by hand. Each magnificent sculpture is lovingly brought to life with a remarkable level of skill and attention to detail reflecting the highest level of artistry you will have come to expect from Brooks & Bentley.

See how every endearing feature is lovingly portrayed exactly as nature intended. From his warm loving brown eyes to his distinctive black and tan coat, the overall effect is simply outstanding.

A Friend for Life is a delight to own and a joy to display. Whether you own a German Shepherd or simply admire this powerful breed you will certainly be delighted with your sculpture for many years to come.

ELIZABETH

FilmFour 10pm

Australian actress Cate Blanchett stars as Britain's first female monarch in Shekhar Kapur's powerful historical drama. After a Protestant v Catholic power struggle between Elizabeth and half-sister Mary Queen Of Scots (Kathy Burke), Elizabeth emerges as successor to the throne. Despite a shaky start during which her enemies are gradually assassinated, Elizabeth eventually becomes the all-powerful 'Virgin Queen', answerable to no man. Also features a brief appearance by high-kicking football star Eric Cantona.

THE SIMPSONS

Sky One 7.30pm

In tonight's episode Homer's boss, the dastardly Mr Burns, sees an opportunity to pay less taxes by forming a religious cult: the Movementarians. With slick publicity he persuades Homer, his family and most of Springfield to join. Marge escapes along with Flanders, Reverend Lovejoy and groundskeeper Willy and then attempts to deprogramme Homer and the kids with predictably hilarious results.

Posh 'N' Becks

● Their home: A mansion in Hertfordshire. Becks therefore travels more than 200 miles to Manchester every day for training

● Her health: Posh has complained of dizzy spells and tiredness. Some people think she may have an eating disorder, others believe her to be diabetic

● His future: Posh told a radio station that she believed her husband would eventually play abroad but other rumours suggest he may sign for London club Arsenal

You can see Posh's Birthday Weekend on MTV from 3.30pm

FOCUS ON...

Trepanation

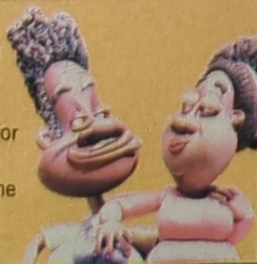

This controversial operation involves a small hole being drilled in the front of the skull (without going as far as touching the brain). The theory is that this increases the flow of blood to the brain and advocates believe that this gives heightened mental activity and a feeling of well-being.

You can learn more about trepanation in Hole In The Head on UK Horizons at 11pm

FOCUS ON...

Rats

Origins: The brown rat, Rattus norvegicus, is a native of Central Asia and came to Britain on ships in the Middle Ages.

Size: On average 20cm with a tail the same length.

Dangers: As well as spreading food poisoning, wild rats can carry up to 35 diseases.

You can see
The Rat Race on UK Horizons at 3.30pm

ENTERTAINERS

REM

REM started out as a college band in Athens, Georgia in 1980 playing Sex Pistols songs. Their first album Murmur was named Album Of The Year by Rolling Stone magazine, but the band had a largely student following until they hit the mainstream with their 1987 album Document from which came the hit single 'The One I Love'.

BEST SPORT

Leeds v Arsenal

CHANNEL: SKY SPORTS 1 DATE: SUNDAY 16 APRIL TIME: 3PM

Two of the Premiership's hottest teams meet in this crucial Elland Road clash. Although the Premiership challenges of both sides appear to have fizzled out they still have a great deal to play for. A top three slot guarantees UEFA Champions League entry next season and with rivals Liverpool and Chelsea both hitting form neither team can afford to lose points. Arsenal's Nwankwo Kanu (right) has already shown his worth and is likely to play a strong part.

BEST COMEDY

FRIENDS

Sky One 6.30pm

Slick laughs with differing experiences for the New Yorkers tonight. When a cat jumps into her guitar case in the Central Perk coffee shop Phoebe (Lisa Kudrow, below) becomes convinced that it contains her adoptive mother's spirit. Monica, meanwhile, goes on a date with Rachel's hunky ex-boyfriend from high school, but finds out that he's not so cool these days.

BEST MUSIC

INSIDE TRACKS

BBC Choice 11pm

Comedian, novelist and captain of music quiz Never Mind The Buzzcocks Sean Hughes hosts this irreverent and original music show. Each week serious muso Sean looks at a different aspect of music, whether it be the state of the pop charts, boy bands or ambient underground music. As well as live interviews with some of the UK's most acclaimed artists, there's also a debate involving a panel of music journalists and fans.

HALLOWEEN: H2O

Sky MovieMax 10pm

Twenty years after psychopath Michael Myers's original attack, his sister Laurie Strode (Jamie Lee Curtis) has successfully managed to reinvent herself as Keri Tate, the head of an executive school. Though an alcoholic and still reliving her ordeal through nightmares, Tate thinks the horrific events of the past are over – that is until people mysteriously start to disappear at a Halloween party. Jamie Lee Curtis is superb in this seventh movie of the Halloween series.

The Bose® Wave® radio/CD. When we designed the Wave radio/CD, we spent over a year making it one of the smallest, most compact systems available. One that fits almost anywhere. But despite all that, all anyone seems to talk about is how lifelike its sound is.

What they're really talking about is our patented Acoustic Wave® speaker technology. Its unique design means no other system can produce such room-filling sound from such a small enclosure. The result is music that's truly distinctive in its clarity and full, natural bass. So striking, the Oregonian called the Wave radio/CD "one of those little unexplained miracles of acoustic physics."

Experience the lifelike sound of the Bose Wave radio/CD for yourself. It's available directly from Bose, the most respected name in sound, and your satisfaction is guaranteed. Of course, the Wave radio is still available as well. When you call for either product, ask about our risk-free 30-day in-home trial, and our interest-free payment plan. And hear for yourself what everyone's talking about.

To think, all that time making it small,
and all anyone talks about is how it sounds.

THE SECRET LIFE OF TWINS UK Horizons 9.35pm

In the final part of his fascinating look at what behavioural psychologists and geneticists can learn from studying identical twins Professor Robert Winston asks to what extent someone's personality is determined by their upbringing. If identical twins were raised separately, would they still have similar personalities?

on this day IN 1970...

an explosion on board Apollo 13 crippled the spacecraft leaving the three astronauts to limp home inside their damaged lunar landing craft after Captain Jim Lovell uttered the words: 'Houston, we have a problem.'

SPORT SHORT

Lee Trevino

'Supermex' was born in Dallas in 1939. A self-taught golfer, he turned pro at the age of 21 after a four-year spell in the marines. During a glittering career he won the US Open once and the British Open twice. He joined the PGA Seniors Tour in 1990.

You can see Lee in action in The PGA Seniors Tour on Sky Sports 2 at 5pm

TRUE LIVES

John Le Carré

The author of many a fine cold war thriller was born in 1931. He didn't get to know his mother until he was 21 and described his father as 'a confidence trickster and a jailbird.' He studied languages at Oxford, taught at Eton and spent a few years working for British Intelligence in the early sixties.

You can see John Le Carré's The Looking Glass War on Carlton Cinema at 11pm

ONE FOOT IN THE GRAVE SPECIAL

UK Gold 9pm

A special episode starring ex-Python and the writer of the show's theme tune Eric Idle. When a Health And Safety inspector (Idle) goes to inspect Victor's apparently radioactive allotment it's not the grave he's got one foot in, but something equally unpleasant and very smelly. Meanwhile, Victor's feud with next door neighbour Patrick (Angus Deayton) continues when Victor takes delivery of a cake bearing a rather rude word.

FOCUS ON...

Atlantis

In Greek mythology Atlantis was an island continent which disappeared into the sea following an earthquake. There is no geological evidence to suggest it actually existed, but the idea is not so far-fetched – earthquakes, volcanoes and tidal waves are known to have destroyed the Minoan empire of Crete around 1500BC.

You can learn more about the legend of Atlantis in Supernatural Science on UK Horizons at 10.15am

THE JUROR

Carlton Cinema 9pm

Jury service proves chilling for single mother Anne (Demi Moore) who finds herself in deadly danger during a Mafia trial in this tense thriller. A hitman for the mob - 'The Teacher' (a menacing Alec Baldwin) - threatens to kill her son and harm her friends unless she can help deliver a 'not guilty' verdict. Anne's nightmare doesn't end when the trial is over as 'The Teacher' has become obsessed with her. Nail-biting stuff.

MOTORCYCLING: LE MANS 24 HOUR - LIVE
British Eurosport 1.30pm

Just like the car drivers, the cream of the world's top motorcycle road racers get to tackle the gruelling Bugatti circuit in the Le Mans 24 hour race. It's also the first out of four races in the Endurance World Championships, which climaxes in September with the Bol d'Or. Expect to see a titanic struggle as Kawasaki hope to repeat last year's victory.

THE 10TH KINGDOM
Sky One 7pm

From the imagination of writer Simon Moore comes a new fantasy drama starring Robert Hardy, Kimberley Williams (below) and Jimmy Nail. The ten-part series follows a father and daughter from New York who unwittingly find themselves in a parallel universe known as The Nine Kingdoms where magic and fairy tales still exist.

Kimberley still believes in magic

BEST SPORT

LONDON
MARATHON - LIVE
British Eurosport 9am

A panoply of colour hits the streets of the capital as 30,000 hardy souls struggle to complete the 26.2 mile course. The race is one of the premier events in the athletics calendar, with many top distance runners rubbing shoulders with the fun-runners. The men's race ought to be between Moroccan Abdekader El Mouaziz and Portugal's Antonio Pinto, while last year's champ Joyce Chepchumba is favourite in the women's race.

on this day
IN 1912...

the now largely forgotten Harriet Quimby became the first woman ever to fly the English Channel. Strangely enough today is also the 133rd anniversary of the birth of powered-aviation pioneer Wilbur Wright.

BEST SPORT

Everton v Liverpool

CHANNEL: SKY SPORTS 1 DATE: FRIDAY 21 APRIL TIME: 7PM

When it comes to football's Merseyside derby anything can happen. In spite of Liverpool's superiority in league placings, Everton have had the edge in this game in recent seasons. Today Walter Smith's men, including striker Francis Jeffers (right) will be doing their utmost to upset Liverpool's title challenge and keep alive their slim hopes of European football next season. Expect ex-Everton striker and Sky Sports presenter Andy Gray to almost explode as he tries to remain impartial.

BEST FILM

The Last Days Of Disco

CHANNEL: SKY PREMIER DATE: TUESDAY 18 APRIL TIME: 10PM

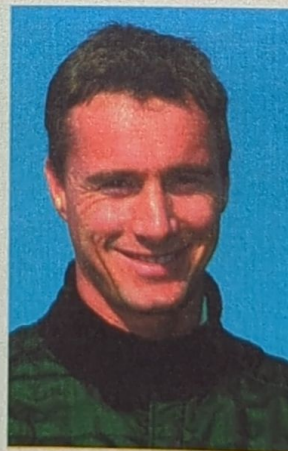

An atmospheric depiction of the glammed-up world of the early eighties. Two yuppies, sweet Alice (Chloë Sevigny, left) and bitchy Charlotte (Kate Beckinsale), hang out at Studio 54 nightclub. Conversation is sharp and their observations caustic as they meet with friends and prospective partners. Director Whit Stillman (Barcelona, Metropolitan) wrote the pithy script and put together a great funky soundtrack.

F1 Night

CHANNEL: ITV2 DATE: SATURDAY 22 APRIL TIME: 8PM

On the eve of the British Grand Prix ITV2 devotes three hours to the fire and fury of Formula One. Highlights include live coverage of the practice rounds at Silverstone and an in-depth profile of F1's newest contestant Jaguar, set to make a mark with drivers Eddie Irvine (right) and Johnny Herbert. Presenters James Allen and Louise Goodman will be talking direct to drivers and crew.

ATP TENNIS MASTERS
SERIES: MONTE CARLO
OPEN - LIVE

ONsport 1 11.30am

The season's first major tournament on clay takes place in the spectacular setting of the Monte Carlo Country Club, situated on a cliff overlooking the Mediterranean. Red clay isn't a surface that suits Rusedski or Henman, but there are a lot of ranking points on offer in this ATP Tennis Masters event, so they'll be battling it out with the world's top players.

CINEFILE

Cate Blanchett

The Oscar-nominee was born in Melbourne in 1969. Her Hollywood debut came in Paradise Road (1997) and she went on to take the leading female role Elizabeth (1998) for which she won a BAFTA. Cate is currently producing Dreamtime Alice, due for release later in the year.

See Cate in Elizabeth on FilmFour at 10pm

ENTERTAINERS

Adam West/Burt Ward

Since hanging up his cape Adam West (above) found work offers were limited as he had become typecast as Batman. Recently he has provided voice-overs for animations such as Spy Dogs and has appeared as himself in The Simpsons. Boy Wonder Burt has appeared in Robot Ninja and has also played himself in two TV shows.

You can see Adam and Burt in Batman on Granada Plus at 8.30am

THE LAST DAYS OF DISCO

Sky Premier 10pm

Set in the early eighties, this sharp-witted movie follows a group of yuppies who are regulars at New York's exclusive Studio 54 nightclub. There they entertain themselves with an elaborate round of witty conversation and satirical observations. Kate Beckinsale and Chloë Sevigny star as two career women who discover that their friendship is as shallow as their one night stands.

BEST DRAMA

THE DARLING
BUDS OF MAY

Granada Plus 3pm, 11pm

The future Mrs Michael Douglas, Catherine Zeta Jones, stars as Mariette Larkin in this 'perfect' rural comedy drama. In the first episode Pop Larkin (David Jason, below) puts in an offer on Sir George Bluff-Gore's dilapidated old house and then sells it for scrap. Meanwhile, back at home preparations for Charley and Mariette's wedding are in full swing and Pop is insisting on nothing but the best for his girl.

A rose-tinted look at rural life

BEST COMEDY

HIPPIES

UK Play 9pm

Father Ted creators Graham Linehan and Arthur Matthews penned this laugh-a-minute sitcom. Set in the permissive society of late-sixties London it focusses on a group of rebellious young people who produce an underground magazine called Mouth. In this first episode, the editor Ray (Simon Pegg of Spaced fame) and the staff of the magazine want to impress a visitor – but they can't think of anything to protest about.

on this day
IN 1824...

the poet Lord Byron died of malaria on his way to fight for Greek independence. Former PM Disraeli died today too (in 1881), followed by Charles Darwin exactly one year later.

BEST DRAMA

THE CHIEF
Granada Plus 9pm

Hard-hitting drama starring Tim Pigott-Smith as Stafford, an East of England Chief Constable. He's tough, blunt and a fighter who refuses to be controlled, his defiance of authority frequently provoking confrontation. In this episode, Stafford interferes with some confidential MI5 and Special Branch files and comes under severe pressure from the Home Office which puts his position in jeopardy.

on this day
IN 1949...

the first Badminton Horse Trials took place in the grounds of the Gloucestershire stately home. Many enthusiasts still go to see less fortunate riders take an unscheduled dip in the lake.

Now there's a Listening Aid available at less than a QUARTER of the price of many Hearing Aids![†]

"I've never heard so well as with my new Resound Hearing Enhancer!"

SO TINY - no one knows my secret!
SO ADVANCED & EASY TO WEAR!

In the USA thousands have bought this amazing aid after a 30 day home trial*. For it not only delivers the most exceptional sound quality but, unlike a hearing aid, you don't require a consultation or special fitting - so it's ready to wear the moment it arrives!

Where is it?

No matter what the angle, your friends won't be able to see your new Resound Hearing Enhancer - yet YOU will be able to hear every word they say with crystal clear clarity!

NEW LOW PRICE - only from Shield Sound

If you sometimes miss certain words but not enough to need a hearing aid, don't worry! This new modern, inexpensive invention is specially made for you. The new Resound Hearing Enhancer is one of the world's most advanced digital listening aids. It is so tiny that no one else can see it - yet you will hear every word loud and clear.

But the best news of all is that it's now available at an incredibly low price exclusively from Shield Sound! Try it now in the comfort of your own home under our unique 30 day trial guarantee and SAVE UP TO 80% ON THE COST OF A CONVENTIONAL HEARING AID![†]

For thousands of people this complete design breakthrough will change their lives forever. Because, unlike a hearing aid you don't need a consultation or special fitting - so it's ready to wear the moment it arrives. The New Resound Hearing Enhancer is designed not only to fit either ear (left or right) but it is so lightweight and comfortable that you will (we promise you) forget you are wearing it. Just slip it in and suddenly, in conversation or on the T.V., radio and telephone you will hear a whole new world of softer sounds, even whispers, with crystal clear clarity.

Developed by Resound in conjunction with Motorola after many years of scientific and market research - the secret of this brilliant invention is a miniature computer programmable sound processor - so technologically advanced it will ignore loud noises yet gently amplify quieter sounds. So you can hear more clearly - even if you don't want a hearing aid!

Try this amazing new aid now under our 30 day money back guarantee home trial!

TRUE LIVES

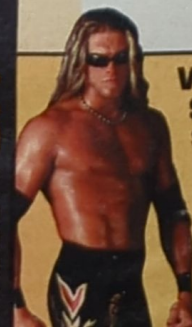

Hans Christian Andersen

The Danish writer was born into a poor family in Odense in 1805. He ran away to Copenhagen when he was 14 and struggled to make a living until he found a patron. His first book was published in 1829 and in 1835 he published the first of many fairy stories.

FOCUS ON...

Fire Brigade

After the great fire of London in 1666 insurance firms set up their own fire services to cut fire losses and they would only put out fires in buildings that bore the company's fire mark, but in the 19th century municipal fire brigades were formed and given state-of-the-art equipment.

HARBOUR LIGHTS

UK Gold 6.40pm

Former EastEnders and HeartBeat heart-throb Nick Berry (below) stars as Mike Nicholls, a former Royal Navy Officer who, after the death of a close friend, returns to the small coastal town where he grew up. In this episode, the first of the series, Mike is forced to put aside his personal worries when an old friend (Tina Hobley) is called upon to investigate the disappearance of a local yachtsman.

FOCUS ON...

Old Fairy Tales

Many fairy tales have been sanitised over the years but were once quite gruesome.

- Cinderella The ugly sisters cut off their own toes to fit the slipper
- Red Riding Hood The girl was eaten by wolves
- Snow White The stepmother had to dance in red-hot iron shoes

See modern fairy tale The 10th Kingdom on Sky One at 7pm

FOCUS ON...

The Four Musketeers

Richard Lester's period romp was shot at the same time as his earlier The Three Musketeers on location in Spain. The actors sued him claiming that they'd been tricked into thinking they were only making one film. They won, but didn't get as much as they would have if they'd been paid for each film.

You can see The Four Musketeers on Carlton Cinema at 9pm

The Personal Loan Express, 182 Bath Street, Glasgow. G2 4HG.

*The above is an example of how to reduce your monthly commitments, it is not a comparison of interest rates as the products and the terms are diverse, it assumes you qualify for and take out a Personal Loan Express secured loan for £13,000 over 90 months at a typical APR of 11.4% (variable) without payment protection, there would be 90 monthly payments of £212.20. Total repayable £19,360.80. This is a typical rate. Subject to status. Credit card commitments are calculated at 5% of outstanding balance. Car finance assumes a loan of £4,000 over 24 months at 18.9% with the TSB. Monthly payments without insurance, £198.60 Total amount payable £4,766.40. Subject to Lender's satisfactory credit score. Rates correct at time of going to press.
YOUR HOME IS AT RISK IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP REPAYMENTS ON A MORTGAGE OR ANY OTHER LOANS SECURED ON IT.

24 APRIL - 30 APRIL

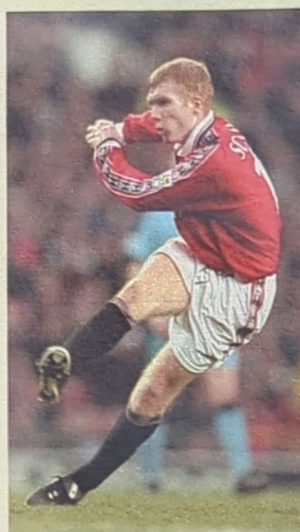

Your at-a-glance guide to the best TV this week

BEST SPORT

Manchester Utd v Chelsea

CHANNEL: SKY SPORTS 1 DATE: MONDAY 24 APRIL TIME: 11.30AM

A high-noon clash full of promise as the Reds aim to avenge their 5-0 drubbing at Stamford Bridge back in October which set the Blues' fans singing: 'can we play you every week?' The Reds' inspirational captain Roy Keane was missing in that game but his presence today, along with attacking midfielder Paul Scholes (right) will certainly make a difference.

BEST FILM

A Perfect Murder

CHANNEL: SKY PREMIER DATE: SATURDAY 29 APRIL TIME: 8PM

This slick and chilling modern-day take on the Hitchcock classic Dial M For Murder stars Michael Douglas as ruthless businessman Steven Taylor. Gwyneth Paltrow plays Emily (left) his young, financially independent wife who is having an affair with artist David Shaw (Viggo Mortensen). When Taylor finds out about this and also discovers that Shaw is a petty criminal he offers him half-a-million dollars to murder Emily. But as they say, the best laid plans of mice and men...

BEST FILM

ROBIN HOOD:
PRINCE OF THIEVES
UK Gold 9pm

Entertaining action movie starring Kevin Costner, Morgan Freeman and Alan Rickman. After being captured by the Turks during the Crusades, Robin of Locksley (Costner) escapes from prison with friend Azeem (Freeman). Returning to England he finds his father has been murdered and the evil Sheriff of Nottingham has taken control. Escaping to Sherwood Forest he encounters a band of exiled villagers and together they plan to revolt. This version may have used artistic licence rather too much but it's still a great family movie and Alan Rickman completely steals the show as the diabolical Sheriff.

Rickman oozes evil as the Sheriff

A WEEK ON THE WILD SIDE
ITV2 12midnight

ITV2 begins a week dedicated to some of life's most fascinating real-life characters. From male strippers to suburban witches, drag racers and topless models, this six-part series follows ordinary people 24 hours a day as they live their extraordinary lives. Filmed exclusively for ITV2 the series features intimate portraits of, among others, an Elvis impersonator from Bromley and a glamorous female wrestler.

CINEFILE

Martin Sheen

The Hollywood A-lister and star of new political drama The West Wing is a fervent anti-nuclear campaigner and has been arrested several times during protests. In another break with superstar stereotype he has been happily married for thirty years and has four children, including Charlie Sheen and Emilio Estevez. See Martin Sheen in The West Wing on Sky One at 9pm

CINEFILE

Alan Rickman

This imposing actor made a name for himself as a Hollywood bad guy when he played the villain in Die Hard (1988). In England he's played rather more sensitive parts in films such as Truly, Madly, Deeply (1991). In 1997 he wrote and directed a thoughtful drama, The Winter Guest. See Alan Rickman in Robin Hood: Prince Of Thieves on UK Gold at 9pm

ANGELA ANACONDA

Cartoon Network 4.30pm

She may seem like an ordinary girl at first, but scratch the surface and Angela Anaconda (below left) is much more interesting than the girl who bugs her more than anyone in the whole wide world – Nanette Manoir. Though she's a good kid, sometimes Angela's imagination runs away with her. And when that happens she's almost always dreaming of ways of getting back at the super annoying Nanette.

COOKED IN A FLASH

Carlton Food Network 10am

For those whose idea of fast food is fish and chips, a frozen TV dinner or a Chinese take-away, help is finally at hand. Each week high speed super chef Jenny Bristow shows how good, healthy and nutritional food can be prepared in minutes, rather than hours. Today Jenny prepares chicken with a tangy lemon and ginger sauce and also with an orange and mustard sauce.

TRUE LIVES

Frank Sinatra

Ol' Blue Eyes liked to hobnob it with presidents and Mafia bosses. He once introduced President John F. Kennedy to a friend, 23-year-old Judith Campbell Exner, who subsequently had an affair with Chicago mob boss Sam Giancana at the same time as she was seeing the President.

You can see Sinatra in Guys And Dolls on Carlton Cinema at 9am

ALL THAT JAZZ

Carlton Cinema 9.15pm

Nominated for nine Oscars and winner of four, this exuberant musical drama stars Roy Scheider as the driven entertainer Joe Gideon – a thinly disguised version of legendary Broadway choreographer Bob Fosse. While overseeing a production of a Broadway musical Joe pushes himself too hard and begins to experience visions of a white clad woman (Jessica Lange) who invites him to look back at his life so far.

PIE IN THE SKY

UK Gold 9.40pm

Detective Henry Crabbe (Richard Griffiths) desperately wants to retire from the police force and devote his time to running his restaurant, Pie in the Sky. Unfortunately the powers that be have different ideas. In tonight's episode, Henry's boss, Assistant Chief Constable Fisher, sends a surveillance team into the restaurant to catch an apparently corrupt tycoon for bribing a local MP.

Faust

The legend of the man who sold his soul to the devil in exchange for riches is believed to have originated with Georg Faust, a wandering conjuror in 16th-century Germany. The legend inspired poet Goethe and composer Berlioz to interpret the story in verse and music.

GURU IN SEVEN
FilmFour 10.30pm

This comedy of modern romantic customs centres on struggling Indian artist Sanjay (Nitin Chandra Ganatra) who has a furious argument with his girlfriend and thinking their relationship is over he goes on the pull, picking up two different women in two days. When he boasts of this to his friends, they persuade him to sleep with five more women over the next five nights and so become 'The Guru'. Agreeing to the challenge he becomes embroiled in a web of deceit and subterfuge.

ENTERTAINERS

Supergrass

The Oxford popsters are Gaz Coombes (vocals and guitar, above), Mick Quinn (bass) and Danny Goffey (drums). Danny and Gaz put together a band called The Jennifers while still at school. Gaz met Mick while working at a local Harvester restaurant and went on to form Supergrass in 1993.

ENTERTAINERS

Martin Shaw

Born in Birmingham in 1945 the tough-looking actor has worked widely in the theatre. His first film role was in Love On The Dole in 1966. After the success of The Professionals Martin turned down lucrative action roles in America for fear of becoming typecast. When not acting he likes to fly his vintage biplane. You can see Martin Shaw in The Chief on Granada Plus at 9pm

The world's most famous ship... THE TITANIC

Actual size (including plinth) 14" long, 4 1/4" wide and 4 1/2" high.

An authentically detailed, hand-painted sculpture

A floating palace...the 'Ship of Dreams'...in her day, she was the biggest passenger liner ever built. The magnificent Titanic began her maiden voyage from Southampton in April 1912...and sailed into history...destined to become the world's most famous ship.

Now you can own a stunning replica of The Titanic, superbly mounted on a polished wooden plinth.

Expertly hand-painted

Skilled artists meticulously hand-paint the sculpture in true-to-life colours and attach fine metal guy wires to support the masts. The churning waters of the Atlantic are modelled of clear acrylic, and the ship is mounted on a handsome wooden plinth.

The dramatic story of The Titanic has enthralled generations...and this impressive replica will attract the interest and admiration of family and visitors, wherever it is displayed.

An exclusive offer – satisfaction guaranteed

The Titanic is offered exclusively by Danbury Mint. This superb sculpture can be yours for just £59.80, payable in four monthly instalments of £14.95 (plus postage and packing). This is remarkable value for a hand-painted sculpture of this quality and importance.

You may examine the sculpture, without obligation, at home. If you are not completely satisfied with The Titanic, simply return it within thirty days and owe nothing.

Reserve your replica now

To order The Titanic, complete and return your order form today. But please don't delay – demand for this remarkable replica is sure to be high and late subscribers may be disappointed. Send your completed order form to:

Danbury Mint

Cox Lane, Chessington, Surrey KT9 1SE.

Majestically, Titanic cuts her path through the Atlantic.

Every detail is carefully painted by hand.

Superb craftsmanship

The Titanic is a masterpiece, commissioned especially for Danbury Mint. Imagine the skill and patience required to sculpt the tiny deck cabin windows and portholes...the anchor...the lifeboats along the upper deck.

FLIGHT DECK

Discovery Wings 8.45pm

This fascinating portrait of the world's only supersonic airliner, Concorde, intersperses footage of a three-man flight deck at work on a London to New York flight with a look at the history and future of the plane. We learn of its success as a profit-making airliner despite political opposition and commercial pressure and why it is likely to be the only form of supersonic passenger transport for the foreseeable future.

NED'S NEWT

Cartoon Network 3.30pm

Ned is an ordinary nine-year-old boy with an extraordinary pet. It's a small blue newt who is transformed into an enormous talking, morphing blue newt called Newton after being fed with special Zippo newt food. Naughty beyond belief he can copy almost anything he sees on TV and in the movies. Inevitably, this leads Newton and Ned into some exciting and unbelievable adventures!

on this day IN 1945...

along with his mistress, the Italian fascist leader Benito Mussolini (Il Duce, above) was shot and his corpse strung up by its heels over the forecourt of a petrol station in Milan, northern Italy.

Studio 54

The legendary New York nightclub opened in 1977 and became the epicentre of disco chic. A strict door policy maintained the perfect mix of people and even many celebrities were denied access. In 1980 the owners were imprisoned for tax evasion and the club was wound up.

AN EVENING WITH
JOHN HANNAH

ITV2 from 8pm

ITV2 dedicates a whole evening to the acclaimed Scottish actor, John 'Four Weddings And A Funeral' Hannah. As well as an exclusive, specially recorded interview with the man himself, there's a chance to see him in a feature-length film of his acclaimed series McCallum. Also screening tonight is a new drama, Rebus, in which Hannah plays a hard-drinking, 40-year-old divorced, detective investigating crimes in Edinburgh's seedy underworld.

Hang out with Hannah on ITV2

THE WAY WE WERE
Carlton Cinema 9.30pm

Classic love story about the turbulent relationship between a political activist (Barbra Streisand) and a budding writer (Robert Redford). Having first met in high school in the thirties the couple reunite a few years later and fall in love. Nearly three decades later contrasting ideals and a series of major political events begin to put a severe test on the couple's relationship. Directed by Sydney Pollack, the movie won Oscars for composer Marvin Hamlisch's score and title song.

CELEBRITIES: THE TRUTH
Sky One 10pm

Presenter Sara Cox aims to set the record straight once and for all, on celebrity urban myths. Going undercover she chats to celebrities and their friends to reveal the truth behind the rumours that have dogged or enhanced their careers over the years. As well as finally laying to rest the infamous Richard Gere rumour, she talks to Eric Hall about rock legend Freddie Mercury.

on this day
IN 1996...

Newcastle United striker Faustino Asprilla (left) was suspended and fined £20,000 for head-butting the Manchester City captain Keith Curle in a match earlier in the season.

Please note:

Each competition entry requires a separate postcard.

The closing date for competition entries is Friday 5 May 2000

Rules and conditions 1. The prizes are as specified: a family break for four in Amsterdam from 20-21 May 2000 with two night's twin room accommodation, flights to and from Amsterdam and taxi transport to and from the balloon trip departure point. Members of the balloon party must be aged 14 or over and full insurance is also included; a FilmFour night out in London for the prizewinner and a companion over the age of 18 including tickets to see a performance at The Globe theatre (choosing from The Tempest, 12 May to 10 September; Hamlet, 28 May to 24 September; The Two Noble Kinsmen 29 July to 23 September; The Antipodes or The World Turned Upside Down, 12 August to 22 September), dinner for two at The Globe Restaurant before the performance, train travel to and from London and twin room overnight accommodation at a central London hotel. There are also ten runners' up prizes of a FilmFour Essential Soundtracks CD each (see page 16); 20 Cold Feet soundtrack CDs (see page 5). 2. No purchase necessary. No correspondence can be entered into. 3. Should the prizes become unavailable due to circumstances beyond the promoter's control, the promoter reserves the right to withdraw any of the prizes at any time. 4. No cash or other alternatives will be offered. 5. The draws are open to all persons over the age of 18 except employees or family members of employees of ONDigital, TPD (GB) Ltd or associated agencies and suppliers. 6. All entries must be pre-paid and should be sent to: ONDigital offers, PO Box 33, Ross-on-Wye HR9 7BR. Entries must include your name, address, daytime and evening telephone numbers and be marked clearly with the draw name. Also for the Amsterdam family break the tie-breaker question must be answered correctly and for the FilmFour night out the actors must be correctly identified. 7. The competitions close on Friday 5 May 2000. All entries must be received before this date. Winners will be drawn at random from eligible correct entries. 8. No responsibility can be accepted for lost or illegible entries, or entries delayed or damaged in the post. Proof of posting will not be accepted as proof of delivery. 9. Entries become the property of the draw promoter. 10. Entries are limited to one per person, per prize draw. The act of entering a prize draw will be taken as acceptance of the rules. 11. The winners of all the competitions will be notified by telephone on Monday 8 May 2000. Details of the draw winners can be obtained after this date by sending a SAE to the promoter (TPD (GB) Ltd, Long Island House, 1-4 Warple Way, London W3 0RG). 12. The promoter reserves the right to publish the name and home town or county of the winner in future issues of the publication. 13. The draw promoter is TPD (GB) Ltd, Long Island House, 1-4 Warple Way, London W3 0RG.

THE PERSONAL LOAN SERVICE

OUR LOWEST

"A PERSONAL LOAN OVER THE PHONE? HERE'S A GUIDE."

WHY'S A LOMBARD DIRECT LOAN BETTER?

- Our unsecured loans range from £800 to £15,000
- You can use one for almost anything you like
- Rates reflect your circumstances and loan amount
- For loans of £14,000 and over, our typical rate (the rate more of our customers pay than any other) is 8.9% APR
- For loans between £5,000 and £13,999, our typical APR is 9.9%
- For loans between £3,000 and £4,999, our typical APR is 12.9%
- For loans between £2,000 and £2,999, our typical APR is 15.9%
- For loans under £2,000, our typical APR is 16.9%
- You can repay over 2, 3, 4 or 5 years
- The interest rate stays fixed over the loan period
- Your repayments are guaranteed to remain the same
- There is no complicated paperwork
- We have no administration fees
- You can apply 24 hours a day - 7 days a week
- No-one beats our commitment to personal service and customer care.

HOW DO I APPLY?

You are welcome to apply for a loan if you:

- do not have any County Court Judgments
- are aged between 22 and 65
- have a bank or building society current account
- are resident in the UK.

Call us free on 0800-2-15000. We'll ask a few more questions about your home, work, bank or building society, income and outgoings. And we'll usually give you a decision there and then. It's that simple.

WHAT'S A TYPICAL EXAMPLE?

For a loan of £5,000 repayable over 36 months, each monthly repayment would be £160.11. The total amount payable would be £5,763.96. APR 9.9%.

For your peace of mind, we offer a Repayment Protection Plan ('RPP'), which covers your repayments in the event of accident, illness or even redundancy.
